■ About Jaipur

Jaipur, popularly known as the “Pink City”, is the capital of Rajasthan, India. Jaipur is famous across the world for its unique architecture, forts, monuments, palaces, art and craft, culture and last but not least for its unique food. Jaipur was founded on 18th November 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, a Kachawaha Rajput, who ruled from 1699 to 1744. Initially his capital was Amber (now Amer), which lies 11km from Jaipur.

Jaipur is renowned on international tourism map as one vertex of Golden Triangle of Indian tourism, along with Delhi and Agra. Much has been written on the beauty of Jaipur city by tourists, both Indian and foreigners. Countless documentaries have been made on Jaipur in the last century. Main tourist attractions of Jaipur are Amer fort, Nahargarh Fort, Jaigarh Fort, Jal Mahal, Hawa Mahal, City Palace, Galta temple, Birla temple, Govind devji temple and Albert hall museum. Jaipur is also known for its traditional fabric market that offers a large variety - Bandhej, Lehria, Mojri, Sangneri, and Bagru prints - along with different kinds of jewellery and gem stones.
